

Blog Directory Submission - Brand Awareness & Back Links

Submitting your blog to 'blog directories' is an affordable, yet effective way to start promoting your blog so that your blog can get the visitors it deserves. WebBizIdeas.com has the first & most complete blog promotional package.

We will tailor design a smart, effective Blog Promotion package program for you. We will customize it to your need and do careful smart manual submissions to the right sites. Our blog submission to authority sites and directories are regularly updated to be complete so that you will start getting results quick.

Our list of free non reciprocal Blog directories is updated on a day to day basis and uploaded every month. We have compiled the best human edited popular and free blog directories where you can submit your blogs.

The list of online blog directories

- Are free to submit
- Requires no reciprocal link
- Provide quality back-links to your website.
- Are indexed by search engines. are established and crawled by search engines regularly

Blog Directory Sites

Technorati

Tailrank

BLOGFLUX

9rules

blogexplosion
Explode your BLOG traffic

blog.co.uk
beta

ICEROCKET™ blog search

six apart

You are doing everything right for your blog. Your blog content is search engine optimized, you post regularly and you got yourself sufficient amount of incoming links. But, does the all too crucial traffic still seem to be evading you? Are you wondering what element you are missing?

Excellent content that is updated often would make your blog great, but that is not enough to get you the traffic that will bring in the money. Did you miss out on the all important blog submission?

The first step in launching your blog is submitting it to blog directories throughout the Internet. No blog will ever attract focused traffic without being submitted in the blog directories where people go to find the blogs that have the information they need. It would be such a waste of good literature if your blog sits in the dark only attracting casual hits that bounce right off.

When your blog figures in a high PR blog directory, you get valuable unreciprocated back-links which impact your search ranking considerably. Moreover, these links direct considerable amount of traffic from the blog directories towards your site.

So, how would you identify the blog directories with the highest PR and popularity? How would you go about submitting your site to multiple directories? How many blog directories would you be able to cover?

Here is your solution. Let the pros do it for you. We will submit your blog to 50 blog directories with a PR of 5 first. Or we will submit your blog to a 100 blog directories, all with PR of 4 or 5. It depends on your internet marketing budget.

Optimal submission process: We do not use spamming or automated submission tools to achieve this. All the submissions will be done manually and we will furnish you with a detailed report which includes screenshots of individual blog submission forms when we are done. Unlike others who submit all blogs from a common account, we use individual accounts to submit your blog which results in a much higher acceptance rate.

Only the best directories: We conduct extensive research to identify the blog directories that will bring maximum benefits for you. We update our list of blog directories quarterly. Every time Google updates its Page Rank algorithm we refresh our list of directories to reflect that change.

Reliable and efficient: We have extensive experience in manual submissions and can guarantee that the submissions will be made accurately and efficiently. We will send you a detailed report of all the submissions after the submission is done.

How will I know that you have submitted to the blog directories?

We will provide screenshots for every submission which will obtain the respective blog directory submission form with the details of your Website. These screenshots will be zipped and emailed to you or will be made downloadable from our server.

By which name will you submit the blog and what emails will you provide?

The blogs will be submitted with the name and contact details of your choice with a dedicated email address which will be created for you. We will do the required confirmations and handover the email account details at the end of submissions.

How long will it take for the blog submission process?

- 50 submissions - 3-4 working days.
- 100 submissions - 4-5 working days.

What is the recommended length of a Title, description and keywords?

- Title can be of 3 to 12 words
- Description can be of 9 to 24 words
- Keywords can be of 9 to 18 words

What details are needed for a blog submission?

Blog Details:

1. Title of Blog
2. Description of Blog
3. Keywords of Blog
4. URL of Blog
5. RSS feed URL

Personal Details

1. Full contact name
2. Address with city and country
3. Phone Number with area code